Unidentified Suspects in Aggravated Robbery

Oswego Police are seeking assistance in identifying the pictured subjects. On November 9th, 2009 Oswego Patrol Officers responded to an aggravated robbery in a residential area near Route 34 and Fifth Street. Upon arrival the male victim was found to have been bound and severely beaten. The victim reported having met both subjects at local adult bookstore. The unidentified subjects were subsequently invited to the victim's Oswego residence. Upon entering the victim's residence the subjects beat and restrained the victim using a belt. Both subjects then left the scene taking with them multiple items including computer equipment belonging to the victim. The subjects were identified as male Hispanics who were able to speak English.

Anyone able to identify the two from the attached images is asked to contact the Oswego Police Investigations Division at 630-551-7300 or call Kendall County Crimestoppers at 630-553-5999.
