Rain, Rain, and more Rain

This was a rough week for work. The rain has put this project on hold AGAIN. Playing in the mud is fun for a while, but this is ridiculous. Hopefully next week will bring some sun and wind. We need to dry out a little bit.

Com-Ed Work has Begun

Com-Ed started their first phase of this project, installing the line sleeves. A portion of this project involves the overhead Com-Ed lines being buried underground in front of the new police facility. The lines will go in the line sleeves shown in the pictures.

Weekly Construction Meeting

The brain trust of this operation! Weekly construction meetings are held with Gilbane, HOK, MWL and Village representatives to review work to date, discuss outstanding issues and to review upcoming work. As we continue in this process, attendance at this meeting will grow with the inclusion of the trade contractors.
